I just sent this version to Noreen and Matt for their review. I informed them that it needs to be in a final version today.

Thanks,

All,

I just wanted to send you a quick update on the status of the revised ppt (we added slides to address the data incorporated into our analysis as well as a RWP slide).

My goal was to send you the updated ppt today but unfortunately the RD will not be able to review and send comments until tonight. I will send you a new version ASAP tomorrow.

Please let me know if there are any questions

Talk to you soon

Clay
